

SOMEBODY

WORDS AND MUSIC BY M. L. GORE

G 000

I want some - bo - dy to share, — share the rest of my life, — share my
- bo - dy who cares — for me pas - sion - ate - ly — with

Am x0 0

D7
xx0

G 000

in - ner most — thoughts, — know my in - ti - mate de - tails. Some - one who'll stand by my side — and ev - e - ry — thought — and with ev - e - ry breath, — some - one who'll help me see things — in a

Am
x0 0

D7
xx0

give me sup - port — and in re - turn — she'll get my sup - port, — she will dif - fer - ent light — all the things I de - test — I will al - most like, — I don't

COPYRIGHT ©1965 EMILE MUSIC CORPORATION.
INTERNATIONAL COPYRIGHT SECURED. ALL RIGHTS RESERVED. USED BY PERMISSION.

lis - ten to me — when I want to speak — a - bout the world we live in and want to be tied — to an - y - one's strings — I'm care ful - ly trying to steer clear of life those in - gen - eral, though my views may be wrong, — they may things. But when I'm a - sleep, — I ev - en be per - vert - ed, she will hear me out, — and won't want some bo - dy — who will put their arms a - round me and kiss me eas - i - ly be con - vert - ed, to my way of think - ing, in fact she'll ten - der - ly. Though things like this — of - ten dis - a - gree, — but at the end of it all — she will un - der - stand me. — Ah —

 make me sick, — in a case like — this — I'll get a - way with — it. —

3

Ooh —

3

1.

 2. D.S. al Coda

I want some -

Coda